WIFE SAVERS BY MRS. MARY MORTON

Peppers Stuffed with Rice.—Cook one cup of rice until tender in one quart of well seasoned white stock. Melt one-quarter cup of butter, add two tablespoons of chopped red pepper and four tablespoons of chopped onions, and cook two minutes; then add four tablespoons of chopped mushrooms and cook until tender. Add the prepared rice and mix thoroughly. Cut the tops from eight green peppers, remove the seeds and partitions, cover with boiling water and let stand five minutes. Drain, fill with the rice mixture, cover with buttered crumbs, arrange in a baking dish and bake one-half hour. Tomatoes may be used in place of mushrooms, if preferred.

Meat Loaf with Pickles.—Five pounds beef (ground), four cups sifted crumbs, two cups milk, three cups tomatoes, two cups chopped celery, three eggs, one tablespoon salt, two ounces chopped onion, eight to twelve sweet pickles. Add the tomatoes, celery, salt, onion and crumbs to the meat and mix well. Beat the eggs slightly, add the milk and mix with the meat. Cover the bottom of well greased loaf pans with the mixture. Then place a row of pickles end to end in the pans. Fill in with the remainder of the meat mixture. In order to have the loaves uniform, be careful to press the meat well into the corners of the pans and avoid having the center higher than the sides. This makes five and three-quarters quarts of mixture and weighs nine pounds when baked. Bake in a moderate oven until done. Allowing four ounces for each serving, thirty-six may be served from this amount.

ORANGE BREAD
Here is an answer to the plea for "something different for afternoon tea":
Two cups finely shredded orange peel, two cups water, two cups sugar, one cup milk, two tablespoons melted butter, one egg, three cups flour, two teaspoons baking powder, quarter teaspoon salt.
Cook orange peel in water for fifteen or twenty minutes until quite tender. Add sugar and cook for about thirty minutes until of the consistency of marmalade. Let cool a little, add melted butter, milk and egg mixed together, and the flour, baking powder and salt, which has been sifted together. Pour into buttered loaf pans, let stand for twenty-five minutes before baking. Bake one hour in a moderate oven—350 degrees.

When small rugs do not lie flat, or if they curl up at corners, take a gunny sack or worn ingrain carpet, brush on a heavy coat of paste (such as you would use for papering); add a small amount of glue on one side and also on back side and trim the edges one-half inch smaller than the rug. The rug will wear much longer and will not turn up when running over with the sweeper.

When washing painted and varnished woodwork and walls, use a large sponge instead of a cloth, or a number of them, as is necessary in housecleaning. The sponge gets into corners more easily than a cloth. It does not leave spots on walls and woodwork that a cloth will do if not dry, but leaves a bright finish. You can do the same amount of cleaning walls in half the time as by the rag method.

Here is a healthful and novel dessert, good for little folks or adults: Just before required, delicately brown both sides of the desired number of good-sized rounds of bread in butter. While very hot, lay on each as many fine stewed and pitted cold prunes as it will hold. Top liberally with whipped cream and serve at once.

Blotting paper placed between fine china plates when it is necessary to pile them together will be found useful. Cut the paper in circles large enough to cover the inside of the plates.

Eggs in Potato Cases.—Take four eggs, two large potatoes, one tablespoon butter, three-quarters cup white sauce, coarse stale bread crumbs. Clean potatoes, bake until done. Cut in half lengthwise, scoop eggs in scalding salted water. Season potato pulp with salt, pepper and butter and line each potato shell with seasoned pulp. Add one tablespoon of white sauce and poached egg. Cover eggs with remaining sauce and sprinkle with crumbs. Place in hot oven and brown. Grated cheese over the sauce makes a pleasing variation.

Cornmeal Muffins.—Take one cup cornmeal, one cup flour, three teaspoons baking powder, one teaspoon salt, one-quarter cup molasses, one cup milk, one egg well beaten, one tablespoon melted butter. Sift together dry ingredients. Add gradually milk and molasses and beat thoroughly, then add eggs and butter. Bake in hot oven about 25 minutes.

A lovely pillow for the boudoir is made of accordion pleated pale blue taffeta, edged with ostrich feather trimming. A round shape is used and the center made up, and trimmed with a small cluster of pink ribbon roses.
